We see the providence of God working throughout

- In this story Joseph had stored up grain to preserve life in a time of famine for many nations. (Genesis 45:5-8)

- Joseph appointed to gather up grain.
  - Why?
- Joseph interpreted King's dreams.
  - Why?
- Joseph in prison.
  - Why?
  - Joseph remained in prison.
    - Why?

- Joseph got out of prison.
  - Why?
- Joseph was in Egypt in Potiphar's house.
  - Why?
- His brothers sold him to a caravan of traders going to Egypt.
  - Why?
- His brothers hated him.
  - Why?
- Jacob expressed favoritism.
  - Why?

- Providence of God is seen on every page in the story of Joseph.
  - Joseph was sent by God into Egypt to preserve life.
  - To save a remnant of those descending from Abraham.
  - Without Joseph, there would be no scheme of redemption, no nation of Israel, and no Savior of the seed of Abraham.

- God's providence related to His power to use all the choices and details of our lives.
- God is not responsible for choices but used them!
- God still uses the choices of men to work out His own divine purposes.
